

For Professionals

If you have any questions about which workshop may best suit your clients needs, refer to our workshop descriptions form, or contact us. Our work is designed to enhance and clarify your client's ongoing healing process. We will send them back to you with a clear aftercare plan. Our intense work may open up deep issues. The techniques we use will help to build stability into the vulnerable places. Your client's ability to do emotional work will be enhanced; however we don't do deep core work without teaching self parenting and empowerment techniques. Your client will be required to fill out a release of information if they are under a professionals care. The client's ego strength will be assessed and any concerns will be directly forwarded to you. We are available for a phone consult after you have had a chance to see your client. Our business grows through the integrity of our work. Our main referral resource is you and we will do all we can to keep our relationship healthy. We look forward to many years of helping your client's and friends get healthier.